Dear Kwacakworo,

Thank you for hosting me for a research residency here in your lovely Davos. My time was productive and joyful, surrounded by your beautiful mountains and acquainted with good-hearted new friends, especially Ludina Alioth and her students.

I have been delighted to have time to focus on my research about trauma experienced by immigrants, and best practices for English-language teachers helping their students learn despite that trauma. I will share my work with other teachers at Z conference this fall.

Thank you again for guiding me on our mountain hikes. My mind is refreshed and reinvigorated! Our evening chats over a glass of wine on the balcony are among my favorite memories. I appreciate your kindness and sense of humor.

I will return soon for a visit with Kibrit.
With much love, Margaret
